

THE TIROTIGERS

NINETEEN FIFTY TWO

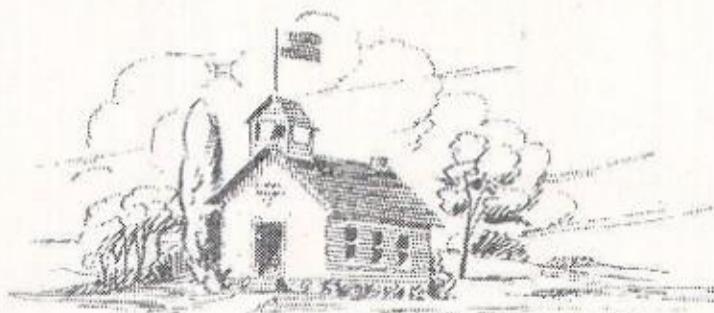

For dear old Tiro High we'll be,
Forever loyal and true to thee.
Though the odds be great or small,
Our Tiro High will win o'er all.
Red and White our colors call,
They'll never waver, never fall.
By our school we'll always stand,
And answer to her beckoning hand.

We the Senior Class of 1952 wish to dedicate our Annual to Miss Helen Jean Weidemaier, who was our class sponsor during our high school years. We wish to express our sincerest thanks and appreciation for her guidance and advice.

CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1940, 18 shy little boys and girls started to school at Tiro. They were Wendell Amstutz, Lloyd Betts, Lawrence Burkett, Ralph Burkett, Connie Clark, Helen Sue Fox, Arizona Heckert, Kenneth Heckert, Lois Hopkins, Carolyn Fagan, James Johnson, Martin Miller, Robert Norris, Sam Pfahler, Barbara Pfleiderer, Junior Pickelseimer, Walter Steele, and Thomas Zorns.

In the second grade we lost Connie Clark, Arizona and Kenneth Heckert. Pauline Fetter joined us this year.

In the third grade Arland Caris, Duane Laughbaum, and Corliss Schiefer joined our class and Wendell Amstutz, Lois Hopkins, and Helen Sue Fox left us.

Margaret Crall, Louise Gullett and Sarah Auck joined our class in the fourth grade but Martin Miller, Ralph and Lawrence Burkett and James Johnson left.

In the seventh grade we had two additions, Bob Kinney, and Bill Haymond.

During our busy eighth year in school Lois Tackett joined us. We also had a swell time at our Christmas party this year.

At last! Freshmen. Gee we were the big wheels then. But the same year Arland Caris and William Haymond left but John McGraw joined us.

When we entered our sophomore year we found we had lost Louise Gullett and gained another girl, Nina Predmore. This was the year we sponsored the high school party. We fed them a good 10 gallon of home made ice cream and lots of home made cake. Everyone had a grand time. This was the year too, that found us adding gold to the jewels in our class. The class rings were purchased this year.

In our junior year, we lost one of our best basketball players, Bob Kinney. The name of our class play was "Babies' Night Out," starring the 12 sparkling juniors, Sarah Auck from the sophomore class and 5 bouncing babies. One of the high spots of our high school career was the junior-senior banquet. We held the dinner at the Steak House and later went to the Madison in Mansfield to see a double feature which included "Bedtime for Bonzo."

When we finally entered our senior year we found that John and Carolyn had become Mr. and Mrs. McGraw, during the summer. Janice Triplett joined us the first day of our last year. The senior year was the busiest we have had yet. We published the Annual, "The Tiro Tiger," and presented the stage production "Me and My Shadow." These are a few of the high lights of our senior year of all the activities we had to make money for our class trip which took us to New York City.

Barbara, Lloyd, Bob, and Sam started in Tiro and completed all 12 years at T. H. S. Miss Weidemaier sponsored our class from the seventh through the twelfth grades. We hope to all be together again some time for a reunion.

Do You Remember?

When Sammy used to kiss Barbara in the first grade?
How Bob Norris got the name of "vacuum head"?
When Lois and Nina asked the Bucyrus Police Force if they would like to put an ad in our annual?
When Jiggs went with Katie Flegm?
When we were all mad at Jr. play practice?
When no one could find Bob Norris at play practice and he was found behind the scenery trying to pin a diaper on one of the dolls?
When Janice started going with Dutch Miller?
When Miss Baker broke the paddle on Sammy?
When Duane would never show up for play practice?
When someone told Duane and Bob the sheriff wanted to see them in the office for Hallowening?
When Sam, Bob and Jiggs had to set up Elgie's cornshocks?
When the boys kissed the girls at Miss Weidemaiers' Christmas party?
What happened to Bob Norris at the same party?
When Lois and Nina used to ride on the second bus to get out of going to Civics class?
When Janice wasn't going to show Dutch any friendship?
When Margaret went with Eugene Neumann?
How the Senior boys looked with their butch haircuts?
When some of the kids rode the elevator to the top floor of the Hotel Leland in Mansfield?
How Barbara always had Nancy W. stop at the postoffice to see if she had any mail from Stan?
When Nina liked Bob Kinney?
How Bob Norris never would go with the girls?
When Jiggs liked Jean Collins?
When Carolyn and John got married?
When Lois and Marlene Pope had a fight over Gene Gwirtz?
When Margee liked Jake Auck?
How mad Miss Weidemaier got at us for not working in the annual?
When Duane went with Gertrude Wiley and Nina got mad?
How Bob Norris won the basketball game with Dutchtown for us?
When Lois got her jeans wet at the weiner roast?
When Nina got sick from drinking too much cider?
When Ramon and Duane had their fight?
When Lloyd started going with a freshman?
When Lloyd went to sleep in Social Science class?
When Lois had to go to detention for a week for skipping social science?
When Janice liked Eugene N., before Dutch came around?
When Barbara and Margaret had a big night at Mansfield?
Who broke the typewriter in geography class when we were in the seventh grade?
When the seniors clowned for DeVito to have their group pictures taken?
When the projector fell off the table?
When the class of '52 graduated?

Ideal Boy

While discussing our "Ideal boy"
we found that he would have many qual-
ties of the Senior boys.

First of all he would have the height and wavy red hair of Duane Laughbaum. The build and personality of Sam Pfahler. The complexion and smile of Bob Norris. The manners and nose of Corliss Schiefer. The eyes and voice of Lloyd Betts.

He would have the basketball ability of Sam, Bob, Corliss. The musical talent of Lloyd, and Duane's mechanical ability.

Ideal Girl

While dreaming of an ideal girl I have considered many things, first she will have the personality of Margaret Crall, the athletic ability of Lois Tackett, the hair and lips of Barbara Pfleiderer, the intelligence of Nina Predmore, and the quietness of Janice Triplett.

CLASS PROPHECY

I have just come back from a trip around the world. On this trip I saw many of my classmates from Tiro High's class of '52.

First I went to Washington D. C. to see the President about his views on world peace. While waiting to see the President, I chatted with his secretary, Margaret Crall. Margaret is not married and lives in a beautiful home in our capitol city.

From Washington D. C. I traveled on to the East Coast, where I boarded a streamliner that started me on my long journey. I always wanted to talk to a ship captain, so I looked him up. Much to my surprise it was Robert Norris. This was his first trip as captain so he was as excited as I was.

When I landed in France I went straight to Paris. I was in need of a new wardrobe so I went to the most modern clothing store in Paris. There Barbara Pfleiderer modeled the latest styles for me. Barbara is one of the worlds best models.

Next I went to Venice, Italy, where I stayed in the most luxurious hotel in the world. The owner of the hotel was Corliss Schiefer. Corliss is married to a beautiful girl from Spain. He has a handsome set of twin boys who favor their father in sports.

From Venice I traveled to Southern Africa. There I visited many diamond mines. The owner of the most fabulous and richest mine is Sam Pfahler. He is an eligible bachelor and a very rich one. Rumors have been flying around, that Sam is courting Miss Alla Nicole, who was recently voted the most beautiful lady in the world.

From Africa I continued on to India where I happened to run into Janice Triplett. Janice and her husband own a thousand acres of land in India. I stayed a month and it was one of the most enjoyable months of my visit.

After I was completely refreshed, I went to visit Australia. This was an interesting continent because it had just won its freedom from England and had established a democratic government. I had an enjoyable visit with the President's wife, the former Lois Tackett. Lois and her husband own the most beautiful home in the world.

From Australia I traveled homeward to the west coast of the United States. I arrived just in time to see Duane Laughbaum set the world's racing car record. The record speed is 400 mph. Duane has the reputation of being the best auto mechanic in the world. He is now married and lives in a fabulous home in Los Angeles, California.

I just finished my long journey last week. I was about to close my diary when I remembered Lloyd Betts, who now owns some of the richest land in Ohio. Lloyd was recently voted the most prosperous farmer of the year. Lloyd and his wife are the proud parents of two girls and one boy.

Oh yes, there is one more person who graduated with the class of 1952 and that is I, Nina Predmore. I reside in a moderate home in Tiro, Ohio. About a year ago I won a trip around the world on a television program. This is the ending of a beautiful trip sponsored by the Weidemaier Dog Biscuit Company.

Class Will

To Danny Gwirtz, Lloyd Betts will his manager job

Corliss Schiefer - I will my short stop position to Raymond VonStein.

Duane Laughbaum wills his ability to inhale cigar smoke to Bud Smith

Robert Norris - I will my ability to play center field to who ever can play it.

Sam Pfahler wills his ability to get an athletic letter for four years to Joe Haynes.

To Jean Collins, Janice Triplett wills her ability not to be bashful.

Lois Tackett wills her extra curricular activities to Gertrude Haynes.

Nina Predmore wills her slimness to Marilyn Lohr.

Margaret Crall - I will my ability to stay in the band all through high school to Connie Flegm.

Barbara Pfleiderer wills her cheerleading ability to Marjorie Smith.

We, the Senior Class of T. H. S. will Miss Weidemaier to any class who can take care of her as well as we did.

WITNESSES:

FAREWELL

We, the Junior Class of 1952, in saying farewell to the Seniors, wish them all the good luck and fortune that comes their way.

We have enjoyed the years we have attended school with you and will miss you next year. The building just won't seem the same without you. The friendships we've formed and the fun we have had, however,
will never be forgotten.
